LANCASTER.

M. F. Elkin, the able advocate of Maccabism and the democratic ticket, was in our city Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Bradshaw, aged 23 years, died last Friday of consumption. The remains were laid to rest in Lancaster cemetery Saturday afternoon, after appropriate funeral services conducted by Rev. J. C. Massie.

Elder George Gowen began a protracted meeting at Antioch church on Sunday and large crowds are in attendance. Rev. J. C. Massie will soon begin revival services at the Baptist church. Elder C. E. Powell will preach about money next Sunday.

If our disaffected friends will only realize the fact that principle is greater than any man, they will vote to perpetuate the eternal principles of democracy, and leave off any consideration of the man, especially when the head of the ticket is favorable to the best interests of the people.

Jailer Ross, in answer to the criticisms offered by the Central Record, regarding the ringing of the court house bell, asks me to say that he was elected to do that, among other things, and that he intends to do his duty. He further says that it sounds hideous to the editor of that paper because it suggested to him in other days the convening of the grand jury, when he would always move his carcass out of town.

One of the most amusing things in the world is to hear a man say, "I am as good a democrat as anybody, but I will not support the ticket." Think of the folly of the expression. It is like the man who always provoked a difficulty and then claimed to be a peaceable citizen; or like the soldier, who deserted the ranks in the heat of battle, and then claimed as much honor as those who stood face to face with the enemy, and won the victory. Away with such sophistry. If you are a democrat you will submit to the nominations of your party, as the soldier obeys the orders of the commander.

Mrs. M. D. Hougham and Miss Grace Kilmard are on the sleek list. Miss Lillie Grant entertained on Friday night, and Miss Carrie Carrey on Saturday night. About 25 Odd Fellows came over from your city on Friday night to assist in putting on some work here, there being about seven candidates. The lodge is composed of good men and a general revival is going on. The good work should be encouraged. Mrs. T. S. Elkin and son, Robert, are attending the Baptist Association at Mt. Sterling. Mrs. Ira Partin has gone to Artemus, Knox county, to visit relatives. Rev. Partin preached at that place for five years. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stormes are in Middletown, Judge Mrs. J. C. Hemphill and H. T. Logan have returned from Indiana.

Circuit court adjourned last Friday till Tuesday. The trial of Prather, accused of murdering Robert Barton, was passed until next Thursday. The grand jury adjourned on Friday, after only five days service, returning only 17 indictments. This indicates a laxity of morals in our county. The case of Hunley Singleton against the Kentucky Growers' Insurance Co., for loss on barn and hemp, was dismissed, without prejudice, on his own motion. When I wrote that the claim ought to be paid, I only had one side of the case. It now appears in a different light.

George T. Higginbotham, a man of good judgment and undoubted integrity, tells me that he investigated the matter fully and that the company is not liable for anything. It is further stated that the company is reliable and that it promptly adjusts all proper claims.

RETURNS THANKS AND CORRECTS A MISTAKE.

STANFORD, Aug. 28.—Now that I am able to write again I hereby express to the good people of Crab Orchard and vicinity my thanks for kindness shown our worthy instructor and teachers during the Institute, and regret that I was not able to be present and receive the benefit derived from the Institute, which is an important factor in advancing the cause of education. I was glad to hear that the meeting was a success. For the benefit of some who think the teacher's fees all go to the instructor, please see Sec. 142 common school law. Prof. Withers was paid $50 and our $76 as stated in last issue.

BRODHEAD AND HER FAIR.

The Brodhead Fair, which greatly eclipsed all previous exhibitions, both in show of stock and crowds, came to a close Friday afternoon and many are sorry that it will be 12 long months before another fair will be held at that good little town, populated by the best and most hospitable people imaginable. The crowd Friday was estimated at 1,500 or 2,000 and a more orderly or jollier one has not gathered in years.

Lincoln county people were there by the hundreds and if any came home feeling that he did not get his money's worth and have a good time he hasn't made it known. In fact you can get at Brodhead at any time more for your money than at any place that it has been my pleasure to go. For 25 cents either the Albright Hotel or Hotel Frith will give you the best meal you ever sat down to and almost everything else is correspondingly cheap. "Live and let live" seems to be the general motto there and they stick close to it.

The crowd Thursday was in excess of any other second day in the association's history, as stated in our last, and a lot of stock was shown. Little Wallace Gover, son of Curtis Gover, of Crab Orchard, won in the boys' riding ring. Jack Ballard got the blue for the worst turnout; Tim W. Napier, of Crab Orchard, got first money in the running race and Duncan, of Flemington, second; Dave Wilcox, of Madison, took the pace and Traynor, of the same county, carried off second money. The mule race, always an interesting feature, was won by Thomas Franzen, with William Hysinger and H. C. Jones, all of Rockcastle, second and third, respectively.

The fast horse, Tony Boy, driven by Wili McKinney, carried off the honors in the $5 trot Friday, with Toyneur's Proxy and Wheeler's Linda Fisher, second and third. Tom Napier again won the running race, while Thomas Monk got the purse in the mule race with Bark Harris a hot second. The saddle stallion, mare or gelding ring had a field full of good ones and the judges found it hard to decide the winner. Cotton, of Kirkville, finally won, however, and James Wileox, of Madison, got second, and Giltie Craig, of Rockcastle, third. Mr. Craig also won in the running walk ring, defeating several cracks. G. R. Ramsey got second.

Mrs. John W. Baslin, of Pittsburgh, who has never been defeated, won over Miss Rosa Genry, of Rockcastle, who had never before met in Waterloo in the ladies' riding ring. A great deal of interest was manifested in this ring and probably a dozen or so changed hands on it.

Every ring in the farm product exhibits filled and some splendid corn, potatoes, melons and the like were shown, proving one of two things: Rockcastle farmers either know how to till the soil or have the soil to grow 'em.

The cake walk Friday afternoon had four couples, all of Crab Orchard, and all sons and daughters of them. It was one of the good features of the fair and the ankles the contestants cut were very amusing. Walter Delany and his sweetheart got the blue and Will Mack and his fair Jamsel second. Frog Eye could not have beaten these two, in his palmetto days.

Walter W. Saunders, of Stanford, and Mrs. J. E. Thompson, who drove Dr. E. J. Brown's idee rig, won in the fancy turnout ring over Mr. James E. Cummings and friend.

The Brodhead band, assisted by the several Stanford gentlemen, furnished good music and plenty of it.

The president, secretary, treasurer and all others interested in the fair are to be congratulated on the success of it in every way. The clever gentlemen all have the interest of the association at heart and have nothing undone to promote it. A jollification of about 15 per cent will be declared.

A delightful party was enjoyed at the Albright Hotel Friday evening. A large crowd of young people from a half dozen towns were present and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. J. H. Albright and his excellent wife. A splendid lunch added to the pleasure of the occasion.

The many friends of Secretary A. E. Albright are sorry to know that he will move to Cincinnati soon and do a produce and commission business. Brodhead's loss will be Cincinnati's gain.

J. Harvey Dunn's parents will soon move here from Boyle and that clever young gentleman is happy.

HUSTOVILLE.

Much interest is being manifested in the meeting at the Huston church.

The heat has been very oppressive for several days and a good rain is needed.

The Danville fair promises to be a good one and large crowds are expected daily.

The Weatherford Hotel is to be improved by a much needed coat of paint, which will greatly add to the appearance of our town.

After finding that the Stanford team would be unable to come Saturday, club telephoned for the Danville nine. Howard Cannitz, the pitcher, was struck in the fifth inning by a batted ball and rendered unconscious for a few minutes, but was able to resume the game. At the close of the game the score stood 12 to 5 in favor of Danville.

Miss Sallie Cooke is visiting Mrs. Fayette Duval in Danville. O. S. Williams clerked in the drug store during C. W. Adams' stay at Cran Orchard. J. Walker Pirkerton, who has been quite ill for a week or more, is able to be out again. News has been received that Miss Elizabeth Bogie has typhoid fever in Lexington. Miss Estelle Powell, who is teaching in Stanford, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents here. Misses Luia Edington and Susie Frye have returned from a pleasant visit to Bradfordsville. Dr. Carl Wheeler, of Lexington, was malingering with old friends for a few days.

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Tom Grant, a Middleboro man, fell from a train at Knoxville and lost his life.

John Brewer was run over by his train at Williamsburg while coupling cars and fatally mangled.

J. L. Irvin, who used to live in Lancaster, died in Louisville Saturday, where he had lived for 12 years.

Coleman Burdett, of Rockcastle, who is 50 years old, has never had the toothache or missed a meal on account of sickness.

J. P. Revel, formerly of Laurel, was killed by his horses running away while he was driving a rake on a farm in Missouri.

By an explosion of a boiler belonging to Tom Hale in Knox county, he was severely injured, Gene Williams killed and Walter Gilbert mortally wounded.

The Burkesville Herald says that Judge Win. F. Owles, of that place, had $800 stolen from him one day recently. It was taken out of his private box in the bank vault.

A. D. Renfro, one of the best-known citizens of Knox county, shot and seriously wounded Frank Cox, through mistake, thinking he was a man with whom he had a difficulty.

Wood Wayne, son of Anthony Wayne, a well-known farmer of Boyle county, was brought to Danville by Jailer Roby, of Nelson county, to answer a charge of breaking into and robbing the home of Mrs. Carrie Ralney, of Perryville.

A picture of Mrs. Little Logan Keen, sister of Rev. Sanford M. Logan, appeared in Saturday's Courier-Journal, with the statement that she will sail Sept. 9 to complete her musical studies in Europe. She is said to have a wonderfully fine contralto voice.

Deputy United States Marshals C. M. Randall and Harve Steele, of London, made a raid on a large moonshiner outfit in Knox. They found the still deserted by the moonshiners, who had gone in such haste they left 12 fine Berkshire hogs. One thousand gallons of beer were poured out by the "shiners" and the tubs, 100-gallon copper still, cap and worm were captured. While the officers were asleep the "shiners" returned, drove out the hogs and started across the mountain with them. The officers followed and recaptured the hogs about five miles from the still.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

The meeting at Goshen, conducted by Eids, J. L. Allen and J. G. Livingston, which has been a most interesting one, will close tomorrow night. There have been eight additions so far.

Rev. A. J. Ashburn, a prominent Baptist minister of Louisville, formerly connected with the Western Recorder, licensed at the abuse of Goebel, has offered his services for the ticket.

Rev. J. M. Yingling, pastor of the Bedford Street Methodist church at Cumberland, Md., says: "It affords me much pleasure to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. I have used it and know others who have done so. I have never known it to fail. It is a sure cure when taken in time. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor, WILLIAM GOEBEL.
For Lieutenant Governor, J. C. W. BECKHAM.
For Attorney General, R. J. BRECKINRIDGE. or Auditor, GUS COUTLER.
Treasurer, S. W. HAWER.
For Secretary of State, C. BREK HILL.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction, HARRY MUTHESNEY.
For Commissioner of Agriculture, JON B. NALL.
For Railroad Commissioner, C. C. MCCHORD.
For Representative, M. F. NORTH.

BROWN's beginning of his bolting cayenne at Bowling Green was decidedly disappointing both in numbers and enthusiasm, and in the character of his speech. There were about 600 to hear him, many being Goebel men who went for curiosity and who worked the unsuspecting and unsophisticated L. & N. from ticket distributors in a way they must now despise. According to the statement of a reputable citizen of Franklin, at least 150 Goebelites went on the special train there. Trains were run from every direction without money and without price it is said, with free lunch thrown in besides, and still the crowd came not. Brown devoted much of his speech to Goebel's charge that he had endeavored through the Louisville Times to stampede the convention and obtain the nomination from the body that he now despises so much to abuse. He admitted that he was a willing Barkis, but says Messrs. C. C. McCord and Urey Woodson came to him unsolicited and urged him to do so to save the party from the inevitable defeat that Mr. Goebel's nomination would cause. As the gentlemen named are Goebel's right and left bowers, the absurdity of the ex-gov's statement is apparent. He also admitted Blackburn's charge that he stumped the State against Kentucky's favorite son, John C. Breckinridge, but denied that he was a boaster. He likewise admitted that he voted for the electoral commission, which knocked Tilden out of the presidency, but said he was in mighty good company when he did so. When Bryan comes to Kentucky he intends to ask him if the agreement of Goebel and Stone were carried, would not this show fraud and invalidate the nomination under the constitution. The rest of the speech was the same as that delivered at Lexington and the whole effort proved stale, flat and unprofitable. The enormity of the effort that the Taylor old society is making to defeat Geobel, is beginning to dawn on the people and if the whole thing doesn't collapse before election day it will take the record from the Palmer and Buckner race by getting less than 5,000 votes in the State.

THE candidates met with the campaign committee at Frankfort Friday to discuss the outlook and plans of campaign. All agreed that the disaffection in the counties that they had visited was small and growing smaller. It was decided to remove the campaign headquarters to Louisville, owing to better railroad facilities. A letter to Senator Blackburn from Mr. Bryan said he would be in Kentucky the latter part of September to speak for the ticket. Gov. McCreary said the bolters were confined to those who had not voted the ticket since 1895 and that so far as he could discover the Brown movement would amount to nothing. Judge Breckinridge said it was a complete farce and the story that ex-Confederates would not vote the ticket was false. Investigation shows that 90 out of every 100 would vote the democratic ticket from top to bottom. Others spoke equally as encouraging and there is every indication that the bolt is bigger now than it will ever be again. In fact the ticket is beginning to disintegrate, the most decent man on it, having had his name withdrawn and others will do so as they see what a miserable business it is playing second fiddle for Taylor and being used as jumping jacks by the L. & N.

THERE is an old saw which says lightning never strikes in the same place twice. That may be true, but a case of its striking the same people twice occurred in Ohio Saturday. Elmer and Edward Kitchen, who were struck and stunned last Spring, were struck by lightning again, the former being killed and the latter hopelessly paralyzed.

At the rate Uncle Sam is jailing the Bakers for moonshining, the Howards and Whites won't have anybody to kill shortly and the Clay county feed will die of itself. Ben Baker was lodged in jail at Louisville Saturday for violating the liquor laws, making the fourth incarcerated there.

Attorney W. J. Brown has been made chairman of the democratic county committee in Pulaski; a good selection.

In his speech at Elizabethtown Saturday, which was heard by a vast crowd, Mr. Goebel read a letter from August Belmont, chairman of the L. & N. Railroad Co., in which he says that the company desires to take no hand in politics, "but will bring to bear on the public all the arguments that it can command to counteract the influence of Goebel's unjustifiable hostility." Then Mr. Goebel went for Mr. Belmont and his company and gave the reasons for its hostility, adding: "The L. & N. railroad doesn't need protection. All it needs is fair treatment, and that I propose to give it. It is strong enough to protect itself. I don't know what words I could choose in which to thank Mr. August Belmont for writing me this letter. It is a complete and official substantiation of my assertions." Mr. Goebel also presented a certified copy of the records by the clerk of Bell county showing that Congressman Colson was appointed an officer of an election in which he was a candidate. "I dare Mr. Taylor to print the records of the Bell county court showing who were appointed election officers," said Mr. Goebel with reference to Mr. Taylor's charge that the records do not show that Colson "served" as an election officer.

In response to Taylor's blow about the collection of franchise tax, Mr. Goebel showed that a democratic constitutional assembly established the franchise tax bill, which he happened to write, and a democratic legislature put it into effect. The republicans had no hand in it. "Don't forget," the speaker added, "the reduction in railroad assessment of $12,000,000 under republican rule and half the tax would have gone to the school fund." Senator Blackburn made a great speech in which he took occasion to give that "decoy duck," as he calls John Young Brown, some more things to squirm over and try to answer. Hardin county has been considered the hot bed of the bolting movement, but Saturday's meeting demonstrated that she is all right and will give the democratic ticket the usual majority.

SOME of the editors, notably those of the Todd County Democrat and Times, have had their passes on the L. & N. recalled by President M. H. Smith for publications inimicable, as Mr. Smith considers them, to the political interests of his road. This would seem to indicate that those who transgress the rules laid down by the company will be similarly treated, and as most of the editors appear to be "transgressing," the probability is that a whole lot of fellows who have been accustomed to riding on passes will either have to stay at home, walk or pay their fare in money like white people. But they should not have been so "bigoty." What right has a little rural rooster to an opinion any way?

THOUGH Taylor attacked his administration in his London speech, Gov. Brown did not find time at Bowling Green to answer or deny the charges, being too busy making apologies for himself and abusing the democratic ticket and the Louisville convention to attend to a small thing like that. Brown and Taylor understand each other. The republican nominee's remarks are made in a Pickwickian sense and for the purpose of keeping up appearances. It won't do to recognize too fully or rather publicly his debt of gratitude to his old society.

IT is stated that the L. & N. is willing to put up a million dollars to beat Geobel. It might mortgage its road and connecting lines for all they are worth to defeat the democratic ticket and then signally fail. That's one of the things that "can't be did."

THE Louisville Times' cartoons of John Young Brown are enough to make a dog laugh and the old boister go off and shoot himself.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Rev. J. W. Daugherty, the pastor of the Nicholaville Colored Baptist church, will stamp his county for Geobel.

Major Taggart, of Indianapolis, was unanimously renominated by the democrats. He has already served two terms.

The Courier-Journal says there is an exciting race on between the L. & N. ticket, the prohibition and populists for place.

Ex-Congressman Jas. Hamilton Lewis, of Washington, has accepted an invitation to speak for the democratic ticket in Kentucky this fall.

Hon. W. O. Rodes, prominent in politics in Warren county and heretofore classed as a boaster, has repudiated the Brown ticket and come out for Geobel.

The London Echo offers a copy of the Goebel Election bill as an inducement to new subscribers. It is a good thing and he should get hundreds of new ones.

John K. McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has a clinch on the democratic nomination for governor, at the convention which begins at Zanesville today.

The L. & N. paid the Haascher House, New Albany, Saturday, for 230 dinners for those who attended the Brown blow-out, so the proprietor agrees.

Senator McCord says that Brown was anxious and willing to take the nomination at Louisville, provided Geobel was willing.

Judge James Denton, of Sonnenz, has announced for the republican nomination for State Senator. Barling his politics he is a mighty good man for the office.

The republicans of Bell will hold a mass convention Sept. 11 to nominate a candidate for county judge to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge James Neal.

Gov. Bradley has appointed Dr. Sam E. Jones of Frankfort, a commissioner of the Feeble-minded Institute, to succeed Dr. James R. Ely, resigned. The new appointee is a democrat.

Judge R. J. Brockbridge, democratic nominee for attorney general, will speak at Elizabethtown Saturday, the same day the democrats will nominate a candidate for county judge.

Taylor's attack on Gov. Brown's administration will keep the ex-governor employed without bothering about the Goebel law. Goebel, governor, for him.—Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

The Franklin Goebel men say Judge Herzel Goodnight got one of the free railroad tickets to Bowling Green. Somebody asked him what he was going to do with it. He replied: "I'm going to preach a democratic sermon with that ticket as a text."

"I am not entitled to the vote of any man who does not favor the election law."—William Goebel, at Harrisburg. "I will be as liberal as Mr. Goebel. I do not want the vote of any man who is in favor of the election law."—W. S. Taylor, at London. So there's the issue.

H. J. Bethurum was nominated by the Rockcastle republicans for the Legislature from that district. They also instructed for Lt. S. D. Lewis for Senator, Knox and Bell instructed for Capt. B. H. Golden; Laurel instructed for Senator Ed Parker, Pulaski for Judge James Denton and Whitley for J. L. Whitehead. The convention meets at Mt. Vernon, Sept. 3.

Congressmen elect G. G. Gilbert, of Shively, and Hon. James B. McCreary, of Richmond, have accepted invitations to be present with Senator Goebel and Ex-Senator Blackburn the last day of the fair. Messrs. Goebel and Blackburn will make speeches during the day, but these will not interrupt the fair rings.—Advocate.

LAND AND STOCK.

300 stock ewes for sale. F. P. Bishop, Hilli.

Gentry Bros. sold to J. Y. Robinson 11 cattle at $4.50.

Sparks & Co., of Rockcastle, will put in 100 acres of tobacco next year.

B. G. Pennington sold to John Owens, of Rockcastle, 35,000-pound cattle at $3.50.

S. M. Owens sold to J. W. James, of Cran Orchard, a pair of mules for $240.

Thoroughbred Jersey cow, giving three gallons per day, for sale. J. T. Jones.

W. S. McGuire contracted for a load of hogs in Jackson county for October delivery at $4.50.

Dr. J. S. Wesley, of Lancaster, bought of James Wright, of Kidd's Store, a gelding for $100.

MULES.—21 good two-year-old sugar mules for sale, either in pairs or bunch. M. S. Baughman, Stanford.

Nice bay mare, six years old, been plow double and single, in foal by a Jack, for sale. W. A. Carson.

Hurnsdo & Leavell, of Garrard, sold to John D. Harris, of Madison, 110 feeders for October delivery at $4.

A Galveston paper says the corn crop in Texas is the largest in the State's history. The cotton yield will be cut short by drought.

W. C. McIlwain sold at Lexington 14 high-class horses at an average of $425. He refused $1,000 for his pair of brown horses.

J. S. Bosley sold to Jerry Owens eight 880-pound feeders at $4 and J. H. Adams sold to same seven at $4.—Adams.

T. M. Estes, of the East End, has a volunteer pumpkin vine with 17 pumpkins on it which will already average 15 or 20 pounds.

J. M. Gooch bought of Charles Scott, of the Goschen section, 14 acres of improved land $37.50. He sold to Holtzman Bros. a bunch of hoggs at $3.50.

Chacunrac beat a field of 20 in the futurity at New York Saturday and won $30,000. James R. Keene bought him the day before from John Rowan for $25,000.

Jesse F. Cook will put in 40 or 50 acres of rye for early grazing for his sheep next year. He has handled about 12,000 sheep this year at Lexington and has done well with them.

S. D. Goff, of Clark county, has shipped to Illinois, 10 car-loads of his cattle to be corn fed, not growing enough corn on his fine farm, on account of the drought, to feed his cattle.

The Sentinel-Democrat says that W. B. Kidd has bought in Montgomery and adjoining counties for Indiana parties in the past week 700 feeding cattle for October delivery at from $4 to $4.50.

In Clark, Wills & Broadwell, of Cynthiana, bought about 25 mule colts at prices ranging from $15 to $40. Good second ratu mules brought about $25 for horse and $35 for mare colts.—Democrat.

W. B. Griffith, of this city, has in night cattle bought 119 car loads of cattle in Bourbon, Clark, Montgomery and Scott for Ft. H. Allerton Co., Chicago, at 4 to 5e.—Paris Kentuckian.

Charley Herr, owned by David Clegg, of Lexington, won the seventh and deciding heat of the Massachusetts State race at Rosedale in 2:12, best time 2:10. The race was worth $10,000 and it is said over $150,000 changed hands on the result.

J. T. Stewart has bought and shipped between 4,000 and 5,000 lambs to Cincinnati and Louisville this season at prices ranging from 5 to 6e. Walter Terhune bought 49 yearling lambs in Anderson county at an average of $28. He also bought 51 male colts in Lawrenceburg at $25.—Harrington Democrat.

LAWCASTER COURT. A big crowd and about 200 cattle were at Lancaster court yesterday. Trade was not brisk because the buyers and sellers were far apart. Conrad Hatt sold a lot of cows at 21c, eight calves at $15 and yearling steers at $17. J. C. Hays sold to Price Bros. 18 steer calves at $17 and to J. Y. Robinson four steer calves at $18.50; H. L. Hubble bought of William Scott 30 yearling shorthorn cattle for October delivery at $16. W. C. Terhune bought 55 lambs at $15 to $25 and 1. T. Embry 10 at little better prices. Luther Underwood sold to T. C. Rankin a mule colt for $45 and Col. Patterson Underwood one to Dick Gentry, of Boyle, for $55. M. J. Harris bought eight 14 to 15 hand inures at $50 to $65. S. M. sold three mule colts for $67.50.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

William Searey, of Woodford county, and Mrs. Powell, a distant relative, were shot from ambush and dangerously wounded at the woman's home near Rushville, Ind. Mrs. Searey accuses her divorced husband of the shooting.

Bro. Walton apologizes because he left out the names of both bride and groom in writing up a wedding. What is the difference, so he got a description of the bride's dress and the wedding presents? They can get their names in about a year later.—Spencer Courier.

A race war is imminent at Darion, Ga.

Fire at Charleston, W. Va., caused a loss of $50,000.

Eleven Mormon elders are doing missionary work in Kentucky.

In Bell county Joseph Lillard shot and perhaps fatally wounded D. M. Blingham.

A little son of Walter Anderson was shot and killed by an unknown assassin while hunting in Polaski.

A convent and orphanage near Spaniard, Rockland county, New York, burned, and four lives lost, besides many injured.

At Corbin, John and Bradley Hubbard, brothers, scuttled for a revolver, shot each other. Bradley was killed and John cannot live.

THE Stanford Academy will open next Monday, Sept. 4th. Prof. J. H. McAllister, the principal, desires to notify the patrons.

GENTLEMEN, if you want nice fitting clothes, leave your measure with J. P. Jones, agent for Fred Kaufmann, the American Tailor.

TUE Northbound passenger, No. 21, now gets here at 11:45 A. M. or four minutes earlier than before. The change was made yesterday.

JUDGE ALCORN has made Mrs. A. A. McKinney happy by having her millinery store-room beautified by new paper and otherwise improving it.

THE first republican to announce that he will speak at Stanford is Caleb Powers, of Knox, nominee for secretary of State, and he will not come till Sep. 25.

A GREAT crowd will attend the Danville Fair from here Friday to enjoy the double attraction of the exhibit and the speeches of Goebel and Blackburn.

SOME 25 of the members of the Odd Fellows' Lodge here went to Lancaster again Friday night and did some fine work. They seem determined to awaken the interest in the lodge there.

If you haven't paid your taxes, do so at once. We must have the money and will expect everybody to come and pay county court day. S. M. Owens, Sheriff.

A MAD dog scare was the cause of 300 dogs being put to death at Greenup. If something would cause the execution of the 500 or more worthless canines here, Stanford people could sleep without being disturbed by their eternal bark.

THE roads of Rockcastle county are being wonderfully improved and Judge R. G. Williams and his fiscal court are being congratulated on all sides. The one leading from the Lincoln Hie to Brodhead compares pretty favorably with some of the pikes in this county.

W. H. BRADY has sold out his store stock and barrel to J. B. Higgins and Hubert E. Lee Simms, who will conduct the business at the old stand in addition run a butcher shop in the rear. The Involve will begin tomorrow. Mr. Brady will rest awhile before going into business.

In answer to inquiries we will say that every subscriber of the INTERIOR JOURNAL will get the trade edition and Mr. C. L. Howell, the promoter, will have 3,000 extra copies printed to supply those who patronize him. In addition to Stanford and all the towns in the county, Daaville and other places will be represented.

EXHUMED.—Mr. M. S. Bastin was on Sunday's train from Pittsburgh with the remains of the two little boys of James W. Haste, who were buried there, one seven years ago and the other last spring. The caskets were in good condition, the one that has been underground for seven years showing little signs of decay. They were re-interred in the family lot at Mt. Moriah church Sunday afternoon.

PROF. J. B. WALTON, of Colorado Springs, who has been engaged to teach the Lebanon High School the ensuing year, arrived last Friday. Prof. Walton comes highly recommended as a teacher and our citizens extend to him a hearty welcome.—Lebanon Enterprise.

EMPIRE drills and fertilizers at Beazley & Carter's.

LOST on the Lancaster pike, an Astrachan cloak with fur collar. Return to Mrs. Frank Holtzelaw and get reward.

S. P. STAGG has made a conditional trade of his store-room and a cottage in Stanford for a farm of about 290 acres in Shelby county, six miles from Shadyside and may go to it to live next year.

DEMOCRATS should bear in mind that it is necessary to be in their prechests 80 days before the election or they will not be entitled to a vote. It's only a little over that length till the November election, so if you think of moving, do so at once. The republicans don't have to be warned, they never overlook such things.

JAILER.—Deputy W. L. Wood arrested and lodged in jail Saturday Carroll Hyatt, who had been fined $30 and given 10 days in jail for disturbing religious worship. He was near Greenbrier Springs, when the officer saw him, and he took to his heels, but was caught after a sharp foot-race with Mr. Wood and Marshal Shannon.

WILL NOT BE HEARD.—The campaign committee decided that Messrs. Burke and Beckwith were more needed elsewhere than here and has withdrawn their appointment to speak at Stanford tomorrow. This county is going to give the full democratic vote. It's rats here do not require speakers to tell them their duty.

CHEAP RATES.—The L. & N. will sell tickets at one fare for the round trip on account of the Harrodsburg Fair, from August 29 to Sept. 1, good until the 24. Tickets sold on the 23rd on account of the Masonic celebration at Harrodsburg. The L. & N. also offers a half rate to the Baptist Association at Nashville Sept. 11 to 13, good to the 22nd.

WHITE drunk and flourishing a pistol, saying that he would kill the man who took his horse, Arthur Burge shot Will Hilton accidentally at Hayden's Crossing Sunday night, the ball entering the forearm and ranging into the side. The young man, who is a son of Mr. J. H. Hilton, is doing nicely, but he was too much swollen yesterday for the ball to be extracted. Burge had called Hilton from his home to assist him in finding his horse that some of his friends were caring for him.

REUNION.—There was a delightful reunion of the Walter family at Richard Walter's Sunday. The following 12 children were present: Richard, John, Henry, James, Samuel, of Oklahoma, Dr. B. F. Gabriel, Jesse, Wallace, Mrs. James Milburn, Mrs. Wm. Williams, of Lexington, and Miss Mary Walter. It was the first time they had all been together in 25 years and the day was one that will linger long in their memories. Some 35 or 40 in all were present and a grand dinner was spread.

WHOLESALE SHOOTING.—A gentleman who left McKee, Jackson county, early Sunday morning tells us that George Hays, tough citizen of that place, shot at Senator W. H. Clark five times at short range Saturday afternoon and that several shots were fired at the senator at the same time from behind the court house. He was hit in the foot and his neck was grazed by a bullet, but neither wound is serious. J. S. Ledford, friend of Clark, shot several times at Hays and the senator also got in a couple at his assailants, and it is thought that the fellow who shot from behind the building is wounded, but he had not been caught. The trouble began several years ago because Clark bolted Hunter for U. S. Senator and was renewed in the hot race for the republican nomination for State Senator.

RAILROAD TO MCKINNEY.—Mr. C. H. Williams and his engineers ran a line to McKinney from here last week, but la trylag to hug the knobs and make the right of way less costly, they found on reaching there that they were 150 feet above the town, which is 170 feet above Stanford. They will try an other line this week with more reference to directness and less of the cost of way. Our people are very enthusiastic over the prospects of the line and see in its construction a great future for Stanford. There should be less expense no act that will enable us to secure it and if every man would put half what he would have to pay if the tax could be voted, there will be no trouble in raising the money. Let us all make a long pull and a pull together to secure the building of the road and then we shall have a more vacant store-rooms and residences in town. One man now has had two store-rooms and a residence vacant for nearly a year, a thing that would not be if business here was sufficient to bring men with money to fill them.

The corn crop will be an average one after all.

The Somerset Water Co. has notified its patrons to quit sprinkling because of the scant supply of water.

The tobacco worms are so numerous that farmers in the Grove section have resorted to the use of Paris green to poison them.

Squirlers are very plentiful in the woods near here. George and Bob Estes killed 15 in a few hours Saturday morning.

All the schools in the Dunnville and Casey Creek sections have been closed on account of the small-pox. There is some talk of closing them here, but it will not be done unless there is a further spread of the disease. There is some talk of a quarantine, but no steps to that direction have yet been taken.

There are all sorts of reports about the small-pox here. It was reported a few days ago that George Ellison, who lives on Trace Fork, had three cases in his family, and that there was a case in the court-house at Liberty under treatment of Dr. Dye, and also another within three miles of Liberty. All of which were untrue. It seems to us people ought to tell the truth about these things. The fact that the loathsome disease is so near us is causing enough excitement without these false reports.

The heirs of Azariah Bastin, who died several years ago, had a kind of reunion Saturday on the old farm just over the line in Lincoln. The family grave yard had been neglected and had grown up in weeds and briars, and the principal object of the meeting was to put it in decent order. Their friends and neighbors joined them until there were fully 150 persons present. The graves were neatly cleaned off and decorated with flowers. Then a sumptuous dinner was spread in a convenient shade and enjoyed by all. In the absence of oratory, so common on occasions of that kind, the young people spent the afternoon in innocent courting, while the older ones engaged in pleasant conversation. There were present of the Bastin family Mrs. Sarah Lucas, Mrs. J. B. Buster, Mrs. J. H. McWhorter, Mrs. Will Jones and Messrs. Morgan Henry and Samuel Bastin, with their wives and children. We were not present, but learn from those that were, that it was a day of real pleasure spent in a good cause. And we are requested to say that Mr. and Mrs. James Durham deserve especial mention for their efforts to add to the enjoyment of the occasion. B.

The law in Casey now is vaccination with a big V; or if not, a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100.

We have the first man to hear say he will mark his ballot for John Brown. "We'll hang John Brown to a sour apple tree" while Goebel goes marching on.

Several Casey boys have joined the volunteer army during the past few weeks and Goebel will lose a few votes. It seems that the rads from this county don't take to the army.

A protracted meeting will be held at the Christian church, commencing Wednesday night. Eld. J. Q. Montgomery will be assisted by Rev. Gilliam. Rev. F. L. Creech will attend M. E. conference (Lexington district) which meets at Newport September 6. Rev. T. H. Coleman held forth at the Baptist church Sunday and Sunday night. Wolford Taylor is another addition to the Methodist ministry from Casey.

We want to correct an error which we sent to the daily press which was copied by the INTERIOR JOURNAL. The loss of Mr. Taylor in the North Dakota ball storm was greatly exaggerated and while we are given to hyperbolical expressions in the press, we wrote the article as was first reported. We have since learned by letter the correct loss of Mr. Taylor, which was $3,000.

The M. A. Literary and Debating Society gave an interesting program Friday evening which consisted of songs, reading, recitations etc. The subject for debate was "Resolved That Wealth Exerts More Influence Than Knowledge." Affirmative, Duke Godfrey and J. P. Kelsay. Negative, Steuben Godfrey and James Drye. The judges gave their decision in favor of the negative.

Miss Helen Sharp has returned home from a four weeks' visit to relatives near Indianapolis. Mrs. Pearl Durham has returned from a visit to relatives in Lancaster. Prof. Hugh Moore, of M. A., visited wife and parents Saturday and Sunday in Boyle. His wife will accompany him to the burg. Mrs. Carrie Coffey, of McKinney, is visiting relatives at this place. V. R. Coleman, of Lexington, is visiting his parents at this place. C. C.

THE REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Cancer. Hall's Cutcher Cure is the only positive remedy for the malignant fraternity. Cancer being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Cutcher Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and various surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the force of the disease, and giving the natural strength by building up the constitution and assiduously nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer the hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send us for testimonials.

REMARKABLE RESCUE:

Mrs. Michael Curtis, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs, she was treated for a month with various nostrums, but did not improve, and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself well again. She has since used it and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well, now does her own housework, and is as strong as ever was. Free trial bottles of this great discovery at Penny's Drug Store, Only 30 cents and $1, every bottle guaranteed.

DURING THE CIVIL WAR, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Civic, Choletta and Marthoona Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.
